in accordance with this Ministry's Public Notice No. 3—I.T.C. (P.N.)—52, dated the 12th January, 1952 should be doubled in value so as to cover the whole year's requirements.

2. In the case of licences already issued, the licence holder should present the licence at the office of the Import Trade Controllers at Calcutta, Madras or Bombay. The licence will be endorsed as valid for double the face value and will be handed back to the person who presents it. No fresh Treasury Receipt will be necessary.

3. In the case of applications already made, where licences have not yet been issued, the applicants should await the issue of licences and should then proceed as in para 2 above.

4. The initial validity period of the licence, which will be for one year from the date of issue, will not be affected by this doubling. The licence even after doubling will be valid only for one year from the date of issue.

L. K. JHA,

Joint Secretary to the Government of India.
